

J Street 2009: Driving Change Securing Peace
Student Conference October 24-27, 2009
Grand Hyatt Hotel, Washington, DC

To accommodate student schedules, the student portion of the conference will run from Saturday, October 24 –Tuesday, October 27. The Saturday evening through Sunday late afternoon portion of the Conference will be for students only. Students will join the main conference Sunday evening through Monday evening, Tuesday morning, students will meet with members of Congress on Capitol Hill. Students are invited to stay for the remainder of the conference, but housing will not be provided Tuesday evening.

How Do I Register?

Students are urged to register or pre register for the conference this spring. If you are interested but cannot yet commit to the conference, please fill out the attached pre-registration form and J Street will contact you with more details about the registration process. To register online, visit www.jstreet.org.

How Much Does it Cost?

Students can register with the Early Bird Fee of $18 per person until June 15. After June 15, the full registration fee will be $36 (reduced from the General Conference Registration of $175).

Where Will I Stay?

Housing will be provided for students who need it at Hostelling International (INSERT ADDRESS) in Washington, DC. Students who choose the Hostel option will pay $20 for three nights. Participants will be placed 4 to 10 in a room.

How Will I Get To Washington?

Registration will not cover transportation costs. You are expected to arrange your own travel, however we will arrange buses and other group travel from locations where we have enough registrants. Transportation scholarships will be made available on a limited basis and will only be accessible after campus liaisons have exhausted funding options from campus resources and have held at least one fundraiser, such as this Party For Peace. For more information about scholarships, contact studentregistration@jstreet.org.
